Abstract: The New Source Performance Standards (NSPS) for Surface Coating of Large Appliances were proposed on December 24, 1980; promulgated on October 27, 1982; and most-recently revised on October 17, 2000. These regulations apply to large appliance coating facilities. In general, all NSPS standards require initial notifications, performance tests, and periodic reports by the owners/operators of the affected facilities. New facilities include those that commenced construction, modification, or reconstruction after the date of proposal. This information is being collected to assure compliance with 40 CFR Part 60, Subpart SS.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities: Facilities that perform surface coating of large appliance products.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Mandatory (40 CFR part 60, subpart SS).

Estimated number of respondents: 16 (total).

Frequency of response: Quarterly, semiannually

Total estimated burden: 1,600 hours (per year). Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.3(b).

Total estimated cost: $192,000 (per year), which includes $2,100 in annualized capital/startup and/or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is an adjustment decrease in the total estimated burden from the most-recently approved ICR. This increase is not due to any program changes. The adjustment decrease in burden from the most-recently approved ICR is due to a decrease in the number of sources. The number of respondents has been adjusted downwards from the most-recently approved ICR to reflect a more accurate estimate of subject sources, based on data collected through EPA's Enforcement and Compliance History Online (ECHO) database and a review of large appliance coating facilities subject to other federal regulations. The decrease in the number of respondents also results in a decrease in the operation and maintenance costs. There are no estimated new respondents anticipated in the next three years; therefore, there are no capital costs.

Director,
